Venaforce® Horse Chestnut tablets - Relief for symptoms of varicose veins

During the Autumn months, children collect seeds from Horse Chestnut trees to play the traditional game of Conkers. However did you know that Conkers have another traditional use? This well-known seed from the Horse Chestnut tree has been used for many years by those suffering with varicose veins.

Why use Venaforce®?

Venaforce is traditionally used to reduce the swelling caused by varicose veins, reducing symptoms such as tired, heavy and aching legs and leg cramps.

Venaforce is made from extracts of fresh Horse Chestnut seed. By using freshly harvested plant material, we are able to provide you with a product made from plants in their best condition.

Why choose Venaforce®?

Venaforce is a licensed herbal remedy made by A.Vogel, one of Switzerland's leading manufacturers of herbal remedies. We are committed to helping you achieve good health by developing high quality, safe and well researched fresh herb remedies.
